TERMS OF REFERENCE
Duties and Responsibilities of the
Special Envoy of the President to the People's Republic of China

HON. DOMINGO L. LEE

Hon. DOMINGO L. LEE, Special Envoy of the President to the People's Republic of China shall:

1. Faithfully serve the interest of the Philippine Government and the Filipino people in his capacity as Special Envoy;
2. Steadfastly promote the 2012-2013 Philippines-China Years of Friendly Exchanges by way of supporting the projects and activities identified by the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) and its partner agencies;
3. Aggressively seek out the support of the Philippine business community and the Filipino-Chinese community for the successful implementation of the 2012-2013 Philippines-China Years of Friendly Exchanges;
4. Actively persuade greater numbers of Chinese tourists to make the Philippines their main destination for leisure and relaxation trips, pointing out the many tourist attractions and leisure activities that the islands have to offer;
5. Explore other areas for promoting friendship and goodwill between the Philippines and China through enhanced cooperation in culture and the arts and in establishing more people-to-people exchanges;
6. Conscientiously assist Filipino dignitaries and government officials visiting China to implement the 2012-2013 Philippines-China Years of Friendly Exchanges;
7. Closely coordinate with and provide regular feedback on initiatives undertaken to the Philippine Ambassador to the People's Republic of China and the DFA Assistant Secretary for Asian and Pacific Affairs so as to synchronize and harmonize efforts and attain optimum results for the country;
8. Submit regular reports to the Secretary of Foreign Affairs on his official duties; and
9. Perform such other duties to enhance Philippines-China relations as may be assigned to him by the President or the Secretary of Foreign Affairs.

ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS

1. The title "Special Envoy" shall be used only for the duration of the mission, purpose, act or event. The honorific rank or title of "Ambassador" shall not be used.
2. Unless authorized by the President, through the Secretary of Foreign Affairs, the Special Envoy shall not commit or obligate the Government of the Republic of the Philippines.
3. In accordance with the Philippine Passport Act of 1996, upon the recommendation of the President of the Philippines and the Secretary of Foreign Affairs, he shall be accorded diplomatic status and be issued a diplomatic passport for the duration of his mission abroad.
4. His designation as Special Envoy shall not entitle him to salaries, emoluments or funding from the DFA, or any other government agency and/or instrumentality. Any official expense incurred for the conduct of his mission shall not be charged to the DFA or the concerned department or agency, unless otherwise specified in the designation paper of the terms of reference for the designation.
5. This designation as Special Envoy will only be for the duration of his mission and shall not exceed six (6) months from the date of its validity.

This Order shall take effect immediately.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Duties and Responsibilities of the
Special Envoy of the President to the People's Republic of China

HON. CARLOS CHAN

Hon. CARLOS CHAN, Special Envoy of the President to the People's Republic of China, shall:

1. Faithfully serve the interest of the Philippines and the Filipino people in his capacity as Special Envoy;
2. Steadfastly promote bilateral trade between the Philippines and China, constantly on the lookout for new and non-traditional Philippine products to introduce to the burgeoning Chinese market;
3. Aggressively seek out potential Chinese investors and work towards their locating in preferred areas in the Philippines, such as auto vehicle and motor industry, high value agribusiness, tourism infrastructure and renewable energy;
4. Actively persuade greater numbers of Chinese tourists to make the Philippines their main destination for leisure and relaxation trips, pointing out the many tourist attractions and leisure activities that the Philippines has to offer;
5. Purposely seek out new opportunities for tapping China expertise, skills, capabilities and know-how in the sciences and innovation fields and other areas, with the objective of providing for capacity-building, training, economic and technical cooperation arrangements that would enable Filipinos to learn from China and thus help in the skills training/upgrading and knowledge gain of Filipinos;
6. Explore other areas for promoting friendship and goodwill between the Philippines and China through enhanced cooperation in culture and the arts and in establishing more people-to-people exchanges;
7. Conscientiously assist Filipino dignitaries and government officials visiting China, providing them with leads and introducing them to existing and new networks of official and business contacts, among others;
8. Closely coordinate with and provide regular feedback on initiatives undertaken to the Philippine Ambassador to the People's Republic of China and the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) Assistant Secretary for Asian and Pacific Affairs so as to synchronize and harmonize efforts and attain optimum results for the country;
9. Submit regular reports to the Secretary of Foreign Affairs on his official duties; and
10. Perform such other duties to enhance Philippines-China relations as may be assigned to him by the President or the Secretary of Foreign Affairs.

ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS

1. The title "Special Envoy" shall be used only for the duration of the mission, purpose, act or event. The honorific rank or title of "Ambassador" shall not be used.

2. Unless authorized by the President, the Special Envoy shall not commit nor obligate the Government of the Republic of the Philippines.

3. In accordance with the Philippine Passport Act of 1998, upon the recommendation of the President of the Philippines and the Secretary of Foreign Affairs, he shall be accorded diplomatic status and be issued a diplomatic passport only for the duration of his mission abroad.

4. His designation as Special Envoy shall not entitle him to salaries, emoluments or funding from the DFA, or any other government agency and/or instrumentality. Any official expense incurred for the conduct of his mission shall not be charged to the DFA or the concerned department or agency, unless otherwise specified in the designation paper of the terms of reference for the designation.

5. This designation as Special Envoy will only be for the duration of his mission and shall not exceed six (6) months from the date of its validity.

This Order shall take effect immediately.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Duties and Responsibilities of the
Special Envoy of the President to the People's Republic of China

Hon. CARLOS CHAN

Hon. CARLOS CHAN, Special Envoy of the President for the People's Republic of China shall:

1. Faithfully serve the interest of the Philippines and the Filipino people in his capacity as Special Envoy;
2. Steadfastly promote bilateral trade between the Philippines and China, constantly on the lookout for new and non-traditional Philippine products to introduce to the burgeoning Chinese market;
3. Aggressively seek out potential Chinese investors and work towards their locating / establishment in the Philippines in preferred areas, such as the auto vehicle and motor industry, high value agribusiness, tourism infrastructure and renewable energy;
4. Actively persuade greater numbers of Chinese tourists to make the Philippines their main destination for leisure and relaxation trips, pointing out the many tourist attractions and leisure activities the Philippines can offer;
5. Purposely seek out new opportunities for tapping China expertise, skills, capabilities and know-how in the sciences and innovation fields, and other areas, with the objective of providing capacity building, training, economic and technical cooperation arrangements that would enable Filipinos to learn from China and thus help in the skills training / upgrading and knowledge gain of Filipinos;
6. Explore other areas for promoting friendship and goodwill between the Philippines and China through enhanced cooperation in culture and the arts and in establishing more people-to-people exchanges;
7. Conscientiously assist Filipino dignitaries and government officials visiting China, providing them with leads and introducing them to existing and new network of official and business contacts, among others;
8. Closely coordinate and provide regular feedback on initiatives undertaken with the Philippine Ambassador to the People's Republic of China and the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) Assistant Secretary for Asian and Pacific Affairs so as to synchronize and harmonize efforts and attain optimum results for the country;

9. Submit regular reports on his official duties to the Secretary of Foreign Affairs; and
10. Perform such other duties to enhance Philippines-China relations as may be assigned to him by the President or the Secretary of Foreign Affairs.

ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS

1. The title "Special Envoy" shall be used only for the duration of the mission, purpose, act or event. The honorific rank or title of "Ambassador" may not be used.
2. Unless authorized by the President, the Special Envoy shall not commit nor obligate the Government of the Republic of the Philippines.
3. In accordance with the Philippine Passport Act of 1998, upon the recommendation of the President of the Philippines and the Secretary of Foreign Affairs, he shall be accorded diplomatic status and be issued a diplomatic passport only for the duration of his mission abroad.
4. His designation as Special Envoy shall not entitle him to salaries, emoluments or funding from the DFA or any other government agency and/or instrumentality. Any official expense incurred for the conduct of his mission shall not be charged to the DFA or the concerned department or agency, unless otherwise specified in the designation paper or the terms of reference for the designation.
5. This designation as Special Envoy will only be for the duration of his mission and shall not exceed six (6) months from the date of its validity.

This Order shall take effect immediately.
